Nominations of Chamber members accepted through March 31st

Women in Business Leadership Award
Sponsored by the Village Improvement Association

Criteria: All nominees must be a member of the Central Bucks Chamber of Commerce. The business woman should be recognized as successful in her field. The candidate should exhibit qualities such as persistence, presence, integrity, and professionalism. As a role model, she should be known for her leadership, compassion and commitment to our community.

About the Sponsor: The Village Improvement Association of Doylestown was established in 1895 by a small, inspired group of 14 Doylestown ladies. In 1923 the VIA founded Doylestown Hospital and continues to govern the hospital today. With our commitment to promoting "every proper means of improving and beautifying Bucks County...improving the health and welfare of the residents and supporting a community hospital...for the benefit of all persons," we are honored to sponsor an award that gives recognition and esteem to an Outstanding Woman each year.

Past Recipients of the Women in Business Leadership Award Sponsored by The Village Improvement Association: Naline L. Lai, M.D. FAAP (Buckingham Pediatrics), Barbara N. Lyons, Esq. (Bucks County Mediation & Arbitration Center), Barbara P. Clark (Network of Victim Assistance), Janet L. Mintzer (Pearl S. Buck International), Mary C. Helf, Esq. (Fox Rothchild LLP), Marguerite Quinn (PA State Representative), Kathryn McKenna (Author), Joan Bradley Parlee (Village Improvement Association)
